

UNIVERSITY OF SIENA (Italy)
in collaboration with
QUATERNARY STUDIES CENTER
SANSEPOLCRO (Italy)

organize a summer school:

Middle Bronze Age Archaeology Field School 2011

in the Tuscan hills between art and nature
from August 1st to August 31st

The school will take place in a typical Tuscan hilly area, near the city of Sansepolcro (District of Arezzo), where an ancient settlement dating about 1450 BC is located. During the previous excavations, the researchers have been unearthed remains of settlements structures, fragments of bones, pottery and worked flint.

The accommodation in a traditional lodging located in a rural and characteristic area will provide the perfect Tuscan experience in style with the participation of

info: www.archaeologyfieldschool.it

The applications must be send before the 31st of May 2011

Training includes: excavation methodologies, stratigraphy, classification, cataloguing, restoration of excavated materials. Seminars about archaeology, geomorphology, botany, anthropology, archaeozoology.

Excursion in the Nature Reserve and visit some of the most important cities of Tuscany such as Arezzo, Cortona, Florence

Enjoy learning in Tuscany !!!